Belonging

God created us to belong, both to him and to one another. But our pride drove us far away, both from him and from one another. Now Jesus is bringing us back, both to him and to one another.

Maybe you won't know what the Heidelberg Catechism is, unless you grew up in a Presbyterian church or in a church that emphasizes Reformed theology. It's a Protestant confessional document formed as a series of questions and answers, used in teaching Calvinist (as in John Calvin) Christian doctrine. The very first question is "What is my only comfort in life and death?" The answer has always stayed with me: "My only comfort in life and death is that I am not my own, but belong – body and soul, in life and in death – to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ."

The rest of the answer goes on to explain the gospel – that when Jesus died and paid the price for our sins with his blood. It's a beautiful expression of a powerful truth: we belong to God. For a Christian, this means submission and surrender to the Lord's will for our life. But it also means being in a relationship with him that is reciprocal. This is expressed in both the Old and New Testament by way of "covenant" – where God initiates with us and we respond.

In other words, God is not a far-from-us, pie-in-the-sky God that isn't involved in our lives. He initiates with his love, with nudges from the Holy Spirit, with his Word, and in a variety of other ways. This part of our faith, belonging to God and being in a responsive relationship with him, seems to be a little easier for us to live out than that second part of belonging expressed in the Bible: that we belong to one another.

Romans 12:4-5 reminds us of this:

For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

Paul explains what it looks like a few verses later: Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. (v. 10). Later it says to bless, to rejoice with, to live in harmony. In other places, like Romans 15, Paul exhorts us to accept one another, to admonish one another. In 1 Corinthians and Galatians, we are called to care for and serve one other – and also not to bite and devour each other, or pass judgment. In Colossians, we are told not to lie to one another, in James, not to grumble against each other – I could go on and on. It's all over Scripture how to live as those who belong to one another. But that does not make it easy. It just means we are compelled and called to do so by the One we belong to.

I want to be clear about what this is and isn't. It means our American individualism is something we must set down. This is part of our culture in this country, and, while there are so many things to love and celebrate about being American, living as though we don't belong to one another and that what we do doesn't affect one another is a lie. We must set down that lie.

Belonging to each other shouldn't be something to fear. The heart of our denomination lies in four words: "We are better together." To truly live that out, it's worth examining the Scripture ("Where is it written?") to see all the ways it's prescribed for us to live in community with each other. Though it's hard and even scary, it's also better, because we believe in a God who wants what is better for us.

In Christ, Pastor Stephanie

(More Scriptures on this: John 13:34, Romans 14:13 and 19, 1 Thessalonians 4:18, 5:11, Romans 15:5-7, Galatians 5:13, 6:2, Colossians 3:13 and 16, 1 Peter 4:9, 5:5, Philippians 2:3-4, Hebrews 3:13, James 4:11, 5:9 and 16. And all of Romans 12 and Ephesians 4.)

Sanctuary Screens

Last June we approved installing screens in the sanctuary and plans are moving forward. While funds have been coming in, we still are approximately $3,000 short of what we need to complete the project (equipment, wiring, software, etc.). The total project will be about $10-11K. We want to do this the right way to maximize usage for music, presentations, sermon support, and much more. So that everyone can have a part in this project and to help unify us as we move forward, please consider giving towards the project. Any amount will be appreciated. Mark your gift for "Technology-Screens." Contact John Bedosky, Jay Fredlund or Pastor Stephanie for questions.

Christian Education

- Zumba (exercises set to lively music) with a licensed instructor are in the Potter's House, starting May 6, 6:00 pm-7:00 pm, and running for 5 weeks (5/6, 13, 20, 6/3, 10). Each session is $8 per person. Contact Mary Butkevich for more information or to ask about possible child care.
- Vacation Bible School: The CE board is forming a committee to plan VBS for the week of August 12. Contact a member of the CE board (Mary Butkevich, Grace Duke, Brenda Tousignant, Drew Conlon, Patricia Vigeant, Susan Sundell or Ruth Hopkins) if you are willing to help plan for VBS. Thank you.
- Sunday School: We need a few more Sunday school teachers for the fall. While it's several months away, we need to plan ahead to be sure all our classes are fully staffed. If this is something the Lord is nudging you to do, contact a CE board member (see above). Thank you.

Summary: Board Meeting of April 14

The new Purpose Team, pulled together by the Diaconate to consider the church's purpose has begun meeting.

General Fund offerings through 14 weeks are $51,075.56. This is over anticipated budget because the church has received two large unusual donations to the General Fund totaling $9,000. Quickbooks is moving to an online format only. We are gathering what's required to migrate our records to the online system by May 31.

The Trustees have been authorized for an amount over their repairs budget to pay for repairs due to a water leak in a classroom ceiling and to address future needs in 2024.

Any future requests to hold services (such as funerals or weddings) which are officiated by a pastor other than the church's own will be authorized or denied by the Church Board.

The Diaconate is making some changes to the order of worship. A request to reinstall the American flag in the altar area has been denied as not being in accord with having everything in the altar area direct all our worship toward God. The church will hand out free water for the town's summer music program in the Seth Thomas park. The pew Bibles will be replaced with new ones using the same version in Pastor Stephanie's sermons. The congregation may donate toward the new Bibles. The old Bibles will be offered to the congregation; any left unclaimed will be donated.

A Vacation Bible School committee is being formed for VBS the week of August 12, format and structure to be decided by the committee. The last day of Sunday School is June 9.

Carnations be given to the church's women on Mother's Day. Sue Sundell will attend UNITE in Ohio in the summer with two of our youth. A church picnic is planned for August. The CE Board is considering changes to the Sunday School program. Offering a Zumba class is still planned.*(continued)*The M&E Board plans a second parenting meeting on August 9, perhaps on coping skills; how to know children are having problems; school issues, and how to navigate them; possibly at a location outside the church. The church will be open from 9 a.m. to noon on Thursday, May 2, the National Day of Prayer. The Teen Challenge Adult group will return on June 23.

Items for the WM Mother's Day collection for Carolyn's Place are due by May 5. Another book swap is planned for Saturday, May 18, as well as the annual graduates' dinner in June.

Plans finally are in place to install the TV screens in the Sanctuary. Fundraising will be done through June 2, equipment purchased by July 15, and the system used in worship by September 1. Volunteers, including some of the youth, will be trained to run the system and the software. Some funds already have been donated, with about $3,000 still needed. Additional equipment in other locations will be addressed after the main parts of the program are working.

Pastor Stephanie and Mary Butkevich will represent the church at the East Coast Conference annual meeting in Manchester on April 26 and 27.

The Prayer Chain list will be revised. Members will be asked to respond affirmatively if they want to continue on the list. People who do not respond will be dropped.

John Bedosky, Chair

Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
